

Copy Management

Copy management can be accessed via the Admin interface using the left hand menu as indicated below. The purpose of this function is to make management of copy records easy by way of printing labels, global editing or stock check reporting (aka inventory).

